

Sixth Grade Picks

Thirst

by Varsha Bajaj

Minni lives in a poor section of Mumbai, India, where water is scarce. When she's forced to do her mother's maid job in a high-rise building, her eyes are suddenly opened to the truth.

The Marvellers

by Dhonielle Clayton

Ella is the first Conjuror to be invited to attend the Arcanum Training Institute, a school in the sky. Students and teachers do not trust or understand Ella...but not for long.

Starfish

by Lisa Fipps

Bullied because of her weight, Ellie feels alone in her world. Why can't people (even her mom) understand she is okay with being fat? (Teen)

Invisible

by Christina Diaz Gonzalez

This bilingual graphic novel recounts how five very different Latinx students, stuck together for community service, are asked to help an unhoused family.

Ahmed Aziz's Epic Year

by Nina Hamza

Ahmed moves to Minnesota — from Hawaii. His father is ill and the kid next door is a bully, but new friends and teachers help Ahmed rise above it all. (Teen)

How to Find What You're Not Looking For

by Veera Hiranandani

It's 1967 and people of different races and religions may now marry. Ari's sister elopes with a man from India causing Ari's Jewish family to disown her. Ari tries to understand.

Ophie's Ghosts

by Justina Ireland

Discovering her ability to see ghosts when a cruel act ends her father's life and forces her to move in with relatives, Ophelia forges a helpful bond with a spirit who died tragically.

Freewater

by Amina Luqman-Dawson

Ada and Homer escape the plantation, but Mama is left behind as is their friend, Anna. They journey into the swamp where they find a secret community housing freed slaves.

Onyeka and the Academy of the Sun

by Tolá Okogwu

Onyeka has always been self-conscious about her unruly locs — until her hair saves her friend from drowning. Learning that she has psychokinetic powers, she travels to the Solari base in Nigeria to find out more. (series)

Jinxed

by Amy McCulloch

After tech-wiz Lacey Chu finds and repairs a next-gen baku (smartphone/pet companion), she is suddenly invited into her dream school — and discovers dangerous secrets. (series)

Northwind

by Gary Paulsen

Leif's family are the hardcore sailors around him. When they become ill with a deadly virus, he's told to take a canoe with little Carl to escape north — but the virus follows them.

Tumble

by Celia C. Pérez

Adela's mother won't say who her father is, but Adela wants to know. Her research leads her to the legendary Bravo family, luchadores (wrestlers) whom Adela has followed on TV.

Something to Say

by Lisa Moore Ramée

Jenae starts middle school without any friends (and likes it that way), but one kid insists on being nice, and she longs to overcome her fear of public speaking to support a good cause.

Boy from Buchenwald

by Robbie Waisman

The true story of Romek, who was rescued from a concentration camp along with hundreds of other boys in 1945, and his struggle to find a reason to live.

Brown Girl Dreaming

by Jacqueline Woodson

In this memoir-in-verse, Woodson describes growing up as an African American in the 1960s and 1970s, her strong family ties, and her dream of becoming a writer.